

Literacy Rotations - Week 7

Teacher focus group

Learning intention:

To improve a range of reading comprehension skills while learning about real world, current issues.

Your task:

Guided reading with teacher. Together as a group we will read a short article about a police crackdown on traffic offences and discuss it to further your understanding.

Response:

After reading the text with your group, you will have eight different comprehension questions to answer about the article. Answer these questions on your iPad using Pages, in FULL sentences and provide as much detail as possible.

You will need to email Mr Sommers your work at the end of the session, so do your best to concentrate and work hard!
