

Literacy Rotations - Week 7

Independent Learning Task

Learning intention:

To learn the structure and requirements for an information report and to write your own information report about volcanoes.

Click on the following link to read what an information report needs to include:

Your task:

On the writing sheets provided, you are required to write your own information report about volcanoes. It is up to you what sort of information you include (for example, you might focus on just one specific volcano, or you might write about volcanoes in general), but it is a factual piece of writing that does not include any personal opinions.

That means you will need to research and look up facts, and structure your report correctly:

1. TITLE/HEADING
2. INTRODUCTION PARAGRAPH (introduces the topic)
3. BODY PARAGRAPHS (usually organised using sub-headings)
4. CONCLUSION
5. GLOSSARY
6. BIBLIOGRAPHY

Make sure you include visual elements (pictures/graphics).
