

Weekly Quiz

Special Focus: Anzac Day

1. What does ANZAC stand for?
2. What country is Gallipoli in?
3. What flower is associated with ANZAC day?
4. Why was Bangladesh in the news last week?
  - a. a building collapsed causing many deaths
  - b. an Australian plane crashed when landing in Bangladesh
  - c. a power cut left millions without power for three days
5. Every property in Northampton in Western Australia will be tested due to fears that the area may be contaminated with a toxic substance. What are they testing for?
  - a. asbestos
  - b. lead
  - c. mercury
6. The Dreamliner plane has finally been allowed to return to service. Why were all of the world's Dreamliners grounded for 4 months?
  - a. faulty batteries caught fire on some flights
  - b. wingtips fell off on some flights
  - c. they were considered to be too noisy during takeoff
7. What type of attack did Canadian authorities manage to uncover and prevent last week?
  - a. an attack on their Parliament
  - b. an attack on a train
  - c. an attack at a sports stadium
8. A Darwin hockey player died last week after being bitten during a training session. What was he bitten by?
  - a. a snake
  - b. a spider
  - c. a dog
9. US authorities are investigating the safety of trainers in who work with Killer Whales in after recent incidents. What other name are Killer Whales known by?
10. Which state or territory has become the first to agree to the Federal Government's multi-billion-dollar Gonski school funding plan?
  - a. Western Australia
  - b. New South Wales
  - c. Northern Territory
11. Which US sportsman is being sued by the US government for around AUS $117m?
12. In which country do five teenage girls face jail because they made a video in which they mixed prayer with dancing to a Maroon 5 song?
  - a. Mexico
  - b. South Africa
  - c. Indonesia
13. True or false, Australia's population reached 23 million people last week?
14. Which country does the USA suspect of using chemical warfare against it's own people?
  - a. China
  - b. Syria
  - c. Iraq
15. True or False, female soldiers are still not allowed to take on direct combat and dangerous frontline jobs in the Australian Defence Force?

Weekly Quiz - Visual

1

This man has been in the news a lot over the last week. What is his name?

2

What famous landmark is shown in this photo?

3

At what place was this photo taken last week?

4

What Pacific Island country has this flag?
a. Samoa b. Fiji c. Papua New Guinea

5

Sadly, this Australian woman passed away last week.
What type of entertainer was she?
a. musician b. TV presenter c. film actress