

Weekly Quiz

1. Which fast food company has been criticised for trialling a home delivery service in an area that already has weight issues?
  - a. KFC
  - b. McDonalds
  - c. Subway
2. Which country has announced it will be banning food imports from Australia, the United States, the European Union, Canada and Norway?
  - a. China
  - b. Russia
  - c. Japan
3. In which Japanese city was the 69th anniversary of an atomic bomb attack commemorated last week?
  - a. Osaka
  - b. Fukushima
  - c. Hiroshima
4. Baby Gammy has featured in a news a lot in the last week. What country is he from?
  - a. Thailand
  - b. India
  - c. Malaysia
5. True or false, the Government wants to introduce laws requiring telephone and internet companies to keep records on the internet sites customers use, and the phone numbers they call, for security agencies to access?
6. Why was Francesco Schettino, the captain of the stricken Costa Concordia cruise ship, in the news last week?
  - a. he was sentenced to three years in prison for abandoning his ship
  - b. he gave a seminar on best emergency practices at a university
  - c. he announced he was writing a book about the Costa Concordia sinking
7. Why was Adelaide Zoo in the news last week?
  - a. it has been criticised for the choice of ice creams it has on sale
  - b. the first twin baby giraffes were born there
  - c. a keeper was attacked by a chimpanzee
8. In which country did a strong earthquake claim over 400 lives last week?
  - a. China
  - b. India
  - c. Brazil
9. How many African delegates that attended the international AIDS conference in Melbourne have stayed on to seek asylum in Australia?
  - a. 5
  - b. 10
  - c. 25
10. Why was John Cartwright, the coach of the Gold Coast Titans, in the news last week?
  - a. he has announced he will retire as coach at the end of the season
  - b. he has been accused of making racist remarks during an interview
  - c. he has announced he will be coaching the Parramatta Eels next season
11. Why has Tiger Woods withdrawn from the Bridgestone Invitational golf tournament?
  - a. he is busy acting in a Hollywood movie
  - b. he has a back injury
  - c. he has a stomach bug
12. True or false, all Australian flights to and from West Africa have been temporarily postponed due to the Ebola threat?
13. In which country has President Obama agreed to carry out air strikes if required?
  - a. Syria
  - b. Iraq
  - c. Ukraine
14. With 4.5 million people, where would New Zealand rank in population if it were a state of Australia?
  - a. 3rd highest population
  - b. 4th highest population
  - c. 5th highest population
  - d. 6th highest population
15. What is the mission of the Rosetta spacecraft?
  - a. to map and land on a comet
  - b. to measure the radiations levels put out by the sun
  - c. to deposit organisms on the moon that scientists hope will survive the conditions

Weekly Quiz - Visual

1

In which city was this photo taken recently?

2

Which country is shown in the centre of this satellite image?

3

Which war's 100th anniversary is being commemorated in this photo from last week?

4

Which country has this flag?

5

Of which state is this man the Premier?

