

Weekly Quiz

1. How old is the Sydney Opera House?
 - a. 40 years old
 - b. 60 years old
 - c. 80 years old
2. What nationality was the Architect that designed the Sydney Opera House?
 - a. American
 - b. Australian
 - c. Danish
3. True or false, Japan experienced a tsunami after a large earthquake on the weekend?
4. What is the Reclaim The Night march that is held in Melbourne about?
 - a. it celebrates the Australian live music industry
 - b. it's a celebration of the longer daylight hours in summer
 - c. it is a march which calls for the end of violence towards women
5. Why did the Pope suspended a German bishop last week?
 - a. he has claimed that he should have been selected as the Pope
 - b. he has spent $50m of the Catholic Church's money to build a luxury complex
 - c. he has conducted services through Facebook
6. A letter written by Ludwig Leichhardt has been discovered by a Brisbane librarian more than 170 years after it was written. What is Ludwig Leichhardt best known as?
 - a. an explorer
 - b. the first Australian Prime Minister
 - c. the person who first established Sydney
7. What week was it in Australia last week?
 - a. Reptile Week
 - b. Music Week
 - c. Bird Week
8. For what country is Australian-born Mary Donaldson a Crown Princess?
 - a. The Netherlands
 - b. Sweden
 - c. Denmark
9. What was a UN official speaking about that led Tony Abbott to accuse her of "talking through her hat"?
 - a. equal rights not existing for women in Australia
 - b. climate change being linked to the recent bushfires
 - c. conditions in the detention centres being unacceptable
10. True or false, gold can grow in trees?
11. In what continent is the country of Peru?
 - a. South America
 - b. Africa
 - c. Asia
12. New figures on obesity rates in Australia have been released. What is the percentage of the population who are now classified as obese?
 - a. 10%
 - b. 28%
 - c. 41%
13. Which performer had their concert banned by Malaysian authorities last week, after deciding it would hurt cultural and religious sensitivities?
 - a. Lady Gaga
 - b. Justin Beiber
 - c. Ke$ha
14. What iconic Australian brand turned 90 last week?
 - a. Vegemite
 - b. Holden
 - c. Arnott's
15. Australia is currently paying in the Rugby League World Cup. Where is the tournament being played?
 - a. New Zealand
 - b. Europe
 - c. Japan

Weekly Quiz - Visual

