

Weekly Quiz

1. Adam Scott is the first Australian golfer to win a U.S Masters. True or false?
2. At what event did the Boston bombing occur?
3. What was found inside a $5 suitcase at a charity shop that has led to a police investigation?
 - a. dinosaur bones
 - b. expensive stolen art
 - c. $50 000
4. The BBC is being criticised after two of its journalists posed as academics from the London School of Economics (LSE) to make a documentary in which country?
 - a. North Korea
 - b. Iraq
 - c. Rwanda
5. Queensland's State Government is contributing $40 000 towards a project to install recycling bins. Where are these bins going to be installed?
 - a. hospitals
 - b. schools
 - c. KFC stores
6. Barak Obama has managed to introduce new gun laws that will require people buying guns online to pass background checks. True or false?
7. Black Caviar's trainer has announced that the champion mare has been retired. True or false?
8. What type of factory blew up in Texas killing at least 12 people?
 - a. a fire works factory
 - b. a car manufacturing factory
 - c. a fertiliser factory
9. What stretch of water separates Australia from Papua New Guinea?
10. Which former Spice Girl has been banned from appearing as a judge on Channel 9's Australia's Got Talent?
 - a. Gerri Halliwell
 - b. Mel B
 - c. Victoria Beckham
11. Which of the following countries did not experience a devastating earthquake last week?
 - a. Iran
 - b. China
 - c. Spain
12. Sydney University is being criticised for canceling a planned speaking event. Who was going to be the speaker?
 - a. the Dalai Lama
 - b. Nelson Mandela
 - c. Michelle Obama
13. What country is the city of Frankfurt in?
14. Which Australian native animal is being introduced to Maria Island of the coast of Tasmania to try and establish a healthy population free of disease?
 - a. Echidna
 - b. Koala
 - c. Tasmanian Devils
15. Which famous Australian will be honoured before a crowd of Hollywood celebrities for her public crusade against breast cancer?
 - a. Nicole Kidman
 - b. Toni Collette
 - c. Kylie Minogue

Weekly Quiz - Visual

1

Near which Indonesian island did this accident occur?

2

Who is being acknowledged in this photo?

3

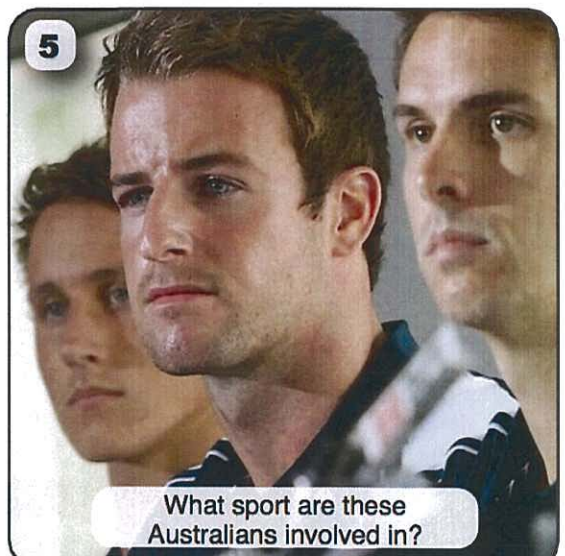

What city was this photo taken in?

4

What state or territory has this flag?

5

What sport are these Australians involved in?