

Weekly Quiz

Special Focus: The Election

- True or false, Kevin Rudd lost his seat of Griffith?
- How many MPs are there in the House of Representatives?
a. 110 b. 150 c. 175
- Who is the new Deputy Prime Minister?
a. Warren Truss
b. Julie Bishop
c. Joe Hockey
- Who said the following when describing the conflicts in Syria, "It's not goodies versus baddies it's baddies versus baddies"?
a. Kevin Rudd
b. Tony Abbott
c. Barack Obama
- What is the name of the official residence of the Prime Minister of Australia that is located in Canberra?
- Why was a New Zealand tourist stranded on Governor Island off Western Australia's northern coast?
a. his boat had sunk
b. he had broken his arm and was unable to sail his yacht
c. he believed he was being stalked by a crocodile
- What city has just been confirmed as the hosts of the 2020 Olympic Games?
a. Tokyo, Japan
b. Istanbul, Turkey
c. Madrid, Spain
- Why is the organisation Parkinson's Australia upset?
a. a comedy sketch by Hamish and Andy made fun of Parkinson's sufferers
b. the Coalition has announced it will cut funding for Parkinson's research
c. a study which had published positive findings for sufferers may be false
- At which London landmark was a man arrested on the suspicion of burglary after a serious security breach?
a. Scotland Yard police headquarters
b. Buckingham Palace
c. 10 Downing Street (the British PM's home)
- Which car company is recalling 2,500 Lexus vehicles across Australia due to faults?
a. Toyota b. Mazda c. Nissan
- NASA has just launched a probe into space to investigate the atmosphere of?
a. the moon
b. Venus
c. Mars
d. the sun
- Nearly 700 hectares of wetlands at Banrock Station are being artificially flooded. Where is Banrock Station?
a. South Australia
b. Western Australia
c. Queensland
- Which corporation has announced plans to buy the Nokia telecommunications company?
a. Apple b. Samsung c. Microsoft
- Who has been in the news for suggesting that non-violent convicted criminals should be allowed to buy their way out of jail?
a. Kevin Rudd
b. Gina Rhinehart
c. Russell Crowe
- Why has London's 'Walkie Talkie' skyscraper been in the news recently?
a. The building's design has been heavily criticised by locals who think it is ugly
b. a driver claims the reflection off the building melted parts of his car
c. people have complained that it blocks views from the London Eye ferris wheel

Weekly Quiz - Visual

1

Name this Australian sportsman

2

What part of Australia has this flag?

3

In which country did this accident happen?

4

Name the two teams
racing in this photo

5

What is this man's name?