

Weekly Quiz

1. In which country were over a thousand Australians stranded after a cruise to Fremantle was cancelled?
 - a. Singapore
 - b. South Africa
 - c. Spain
2. Which country is being accused of using chemical agents against activists?
 - a. Egypt
 - b. China
 - c. Syria
3. True or false, Kevin Rudd has announced that Labour will spend millions of dollars buying Indonesian fishing boats that might otherwise be used for people smuggling?
4. Why did hundreds of workers on Chevron's offshore Gorgon project participate in a protest march?
 - a. they want better and healthier food
 - b. they want more pay
 - c. they don't want to share bunk beds
5. Why has Japan's Fukushima nuclear power plant been in the news?
 - a. they are having to deal with 300 tonnes of contaminated water
 - b. they have finally declared the power plant to be safe
 - c. they have extended the restricted zone around the plant to a 50km radius
6. What is going to be introduced to make quad bikes safer?
 - a. a safety star rating
 - b. a speed limit of 20km per hour
 - c. roll bars and seat belts
7. Kevin Rudd has been accused of missing important talks on the Syrian crisis to do what?
 - a. have an anniversary dinner with his wife
 - b. play a round of golf
 - c. make an appearance on a TV cooking show
8. How did over 37 people die in a tragic accident in eastern India?
 - a. a passenger plane crashed
 - b. a fire broke out in a car manufacturing plant
 - c. they were struck by a train while crossing the tracks
9. Why was Mackay State High School in north Queensland in the news last week?
 - a. a protest was held after it was announced that the school would close
 - b. three of the schools building blocks were entirely demolished by fire
 - c. two homemade bombs were found on the school grounds
10. Why was Beyonce in the news last week?
 - a. she spent $10,000 on a haircut
 - b. she bought a zoo
 - c. she spent $3000 at a fast food restaurant
11. Australia and England compete every second year to win The Ashes. What are the ashes from?
 - a. a cricket bat
 - b. a famous cricketer
 - c. a bail from the wickets
12. What caused major chaos for Sydney commuters last Thursday?
 - a. a large fire had shut down the CBD
 - b. a serious crash on the Sydney Harbour Bridge stopped traffic
 - c. a major power outage
13. An Australian study has found that the flu vaccine can affect the chance of a person suffering what?
 - a. a heart attack
 - b. a stroke
 - c. bone disease
14. What is the capital city of Sweden?
15. True or false, Labor has announced that parents who do not vaccinate their children will miss out on thousands of dollars in government payouts?

Weekly Quiz - Visual

